MEMO

Date: April 27, 2009
Subject: Summer Lessons
To: Flute Students and Parents
Details:

This summer, I intend to teach lessons one day a week for those weeks when I am not traveling. These lessons will be taught from my home which is located on 33rd Street S.E. (the street that Blockbuster Video is located on.) Due to the nature of the summer season, the studio policies will be slightly different. Here is how it will work:

All lessons will be 25 minutes long (to allow for as many students as possible in a single day) and will therefore cost $15 per lesson. Students who sign up for lessons will bring $30 to their first summer lesson. This will cover their first lesson and their final lesson. The final lesson fee will serve as a deposit which I will use in the event that the student neglects to show up to a future summer lesson without advanced notice. After the first lesson, students will bring $15 to their lessons. (The last lesson, of course, will have been prepaid.) We will touch base each week to determine if we will be able to have a lesson the next week. This way we can be as flexible as possible to allow for camps, vacations, summer school functions, etc..

Regarding scholarships ... if your school offered scholarships, these will likely not be in effect during the summer. You may want to discuss this with your band director.

North Lamar ISD Students: According to Mrs. Logee, the summer policy is as follows: You will pay me the full $15 per lesson and I will provide you with a receipt. At the beginning of the school year you will turn in your receipts and receive a $7.50 credit per lesson toward your first 10-week school contract. In other words, you will end up still paying $7.50 per lesson in the long run.

Since I will only be teaching one day a week I will only be able to accept a limited number of students. Lesson slots will be assigned basically on a first-come-first-serve basis, so be sure to return the attached form as soon as possible. If I run out of time slots I will maintain a waiting list.

I do encourage you to heavily consider taking lessons ... even if you can only get a few lessons in during the summer, it will help you to keep your flute-playing chops in shape.

Sincerely,

Angela Rhodes
